

How to Access Dating Matters Program Facilitator Training & Program Materials

COMPLETE USER AGREEMENT AND GET A COMMUNITY ACCESS CODE

To access the Dating Matters Program Facilitator Training and youth and parent program materials, you will need a Community Access Code.

If you do not have a Community Access Code yet, you can request one here:

<https://vetoviolence.cdc.gov/apps/dating-matters-toolkit/dating-matters-user-agreement/>

My Community Access Code is:

HOW TO ACCESS THE PROGRAM FACILITATOR TRAINING

To access the Program Facilitator Training and program materials, enter your code on this page:

<https://vetoviolence.cdc.gov/apps/dating-matters-facilitator/#/access-required>

There are three training modules for facilitators:

- Intro – classroom management
- Parent – teaching parents how to work with their kids
- Youth – teaching kids

All facilitators should complete the Intro module. Complete the parent and/or youth modules if you will be facilitating or supervising those programs. Your Coach will provide additional instruction and guidance in one-on-one or group sessions, as outlined in the Coaches' Playbook: <https://vetoviolence.cdc.gov/sites/vetoviolence.cdc.gov/files/pdf/DM-Coaches-Playbook-RGB-508-8-2.pdf>

In order to track your training progress, you will need to create an account on VetoViolence: <https://vetoviolence.cdc.gov/apps/main/home>

- Click on the purple box that says Register at the top, or click here: <https://vetoviolence.cdc.gov/apps/main/account/register>

HOW TO ACCESS THE PROGRAM MATERIALS LOCATED IN THE TRAINING PORTAL

To access the program materials, click on Resources. You will see the Program Facilitator Manuals, Student and Parent Handbooks, and additional implementation materials for each of the Dating Matters programs. Materials are available as PDFs for self-printing. Additionally, some professionally-printed materials are available for free from CDC (see instructions).

DATING MATTERS TERMS OF USE

In exchange for access to, and use of, Dating Matters program materials, I affirm that:

- I am a Dating Matters Prevention Lead, Coach, or serving in a similar supervisory role overseeing the implementation of one or more Dating Matters youth or parent programs.
- I will provide my assigned Community Access Code to all program facilitators or other trained staff involved in Dating Matters implementation under my supervision.
- I will ensure that all Dating Matters youth and parent program facilitators using my Community Access Code complete the online Program Facilitator Training and required in-person training activities with a Dating Matters Coach prior to implementing any programmatic activities in the community.
- I will ensure that all staff responsible for implementing Dating Matters receive ongoing supervision and coaching.
- I will ensure that all staff under my supervision are aware of and adhere to the Terms of Use for Dating Matters program materials and training.
- I will complete the Dating Matters Program Facilitator Training.

- I will not distribute my Community Access Code to anyone other than Dating Matters staff or program facilitators under my supervision.
- I will inform Dating Matters staff and program facilitators under my supervision that CDC will only provide Community Access Codes to me or other supervisory staff.

I agree that:

- I will not sell, modify, distribute, or post online the Dating Matters program materials to anyone other than Dating Matters staff and program facilitators under my supervision without the express written permission of CDC.
- I will ensure that all Dating Matters youth and parent program facilitators using my Community Access Code are aware of, and agree to, this restriction.
- I will not Use the Dating Matters or CDC logos, or any other logo owned by CDC, in any way, including on any materials, without the express written permission of CDC.
- I will not imply CDC endorsement of any non-CDC product, policy, service, or enterprise.
